Profile

I am an innovative Software Developer with a strong passion for creating reliable and efficient IT solutions that support business operations. With hands-on experience in developing and maintaining payroll and POS systems, I bring excellent problem-solving skills, attention to detail, and a commitment to delivering high-quality results. I am particularly interested in applying my knowledge and technical expertise to contribute to the smooth IT operations and digital transformation of Wichy Coconut Plantation in Rambawewa. Dedicated to continuous improvement and adaptability, I am eager to support your organization's goals through technology-driven solutions.
